

This biannual learning is being organized in 2023-2024

Teacher(s)	Fabry Geneviève ;
Language :	Spanish
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites	Advanced Spanish level.
Main themes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Theoretical and methodological bases</li> <li>- Delimitation and analysis of a body of text</li> <li>- Sharing and discussing results.</li> </ul>
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 The student will receive in this seminar the grounding necessary to carry out a research task in the field of contemporary Spanish literature and to take part in a scholarly debate in this field.
Evaluation methods	Assessment is based on the presentation of a written paper at the end of the semester, following discussion of a provisional project in the seminar. In case of insufficient participation in the seminar (preparatory documents not read; provisional or oral version not presented; absence from the discussions), the student will not be able to pass the course.
Teaching methods	The seminar will be based on the students' readings and interactions, which will allow them to progressively build the theoretical and methodological framework, as well as to become familiar with the proposed corpus of novels. A first written and then oral version will be the occasion of a first formative evaluation before the final written version is submitted.
Content	The aim of the seminar is to propose a method of textual analysis of the temporal dimension present in poetic or narrative texts. After a precise narratological description, the significance of the temporal dimension of literature will be appreciated in the light of different theoretical frameworks that can be worked on separately or combined according to the case: environmental humanities, decolonial thought, or certain philosophical references (such as the work of Ricoeur, for example).
