UCLouvain

langl2601

2017

English for Communication - Entry to Professional life

5 credits	30.0 h	Q1 and Q2
-----------	--------	-----------

Teacher(s)	Brabant Stéphanie coordinator ;Deneumoustier Aurélie ;Gouverneur Céline coordinator ;Halleux Ariane (compensates Deneumoustier Aurélie) ;Henin Véronique ;
Language :	English
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	Students will be asked to take part in various activities allowing them to develop their communicative skills (mainly oral skills) in the following situations: • Job interview (including a CV and a letter of application) • Organising and covering an event (including invitations, programmes, surveys, questionnaires, video and audic documents) • Presenting a project, surveys etc • Writing articles on specific subjects related to their field of studies • Preparing, presenting and coveringa press conference (as well as writing the questions) • Participating in a meeting, workshop, news bulletin ' • Using electronic mail
Aims	The main objective of the course is the development of skills that will enable the students in the communication business (public relations, journalism,') to function in the daily situations of their future professional activities. By the end of the course, the student should have reached the B2 level of the « Common European Framework » (Council of Europe) for the following skills: 1. reading comprehension 2. listening comprehension 3. oral expression 4. written expression
Evaluation methods	Students are assessed on their preparation and participation in the various activities and more particularly on a talk (in class), a press conference, a job interview, a radio programme, when organising and covering an event and on the articles they will write.
Teaching methods	Before each class activity, the teacher places a range of tools (communication techniques, useful expressions, general and specialised vocabulary, grammatical reminders) and resources (written documents, audiovisual aids, web sites ') at the students' disposal. Most of them are mentioned in the syllabus and enable the students to interact in communication situations in so far as they have been prepared beforehand. Feedback activities are also planned. Students are given detailed instructions before each activity. Texts and videos are used as inputs to the oral discussion.
Content	Reading skills: B2 level of the 'Common European Framework' (Council of Europe) • By the end of the course, the students should be able to read - with a large degree of independence - articles (from newspapers, magazines, internet and other sources) and reports (press kits ') concerning contemporary issues. Listening skills: B2 level of the 'Common European Framework' (Council of Europe) • Students should be able to understand conferences and extended speeches and follow complex argumentation. • Students should be able to exploit the main points of a document in a conversation • Students should be able to follow argumentation in an animated conversation between different interlocutors within the main socio-professional contexts. Oral skills: B2 level of the 'Common European Framework' (Council of Europe) • Students should be able to present a complex topic in a clear and methodical way with only occasional reference

•	site catholique de Louvain - English for Communication - Entry to Professional life - en-cours-2017-langizou i
	 Students should be able to communicate spontaneously and fluently to a degree that allows for normal interaction with a native-speaker interlocutor. Students should be able to communicate fluently and effectively in conversations on both social and professional levels. Student should be able to express, articulate and defend their opinions and should be able to react to and interact with their interlocutors in conversations on both social and professional levels.
	Written skills: B2 level of the 'Common European Framework' (Council of Europe)
	By the end of the course, the students should be able to write a press article to write an e-mail message properly to write a motivation letter and a CV to write a text about a relevant topic in their field of studies to write documents (invitations, programmes, surveys, questionnaires about organising and covering an event)
	Code
	 Enabling students to adequately master language functions, grammatical structures (simple and complex), vocabulary (general and specific), pronunciation and intonation in order to allow for fluent and spontaneous communication.
	Culture
	Making students aware of the (inter-)cultural differences as expressed by different interlocutors of the English language (native and non-native speakers).
Inline resources	http://moodleucl.uclouvain.be/course/view.php?id=77
Bibliography	Syllabus: English for Communication / Entry to Professional Life Site Internet (e-learning) comprenant des documents pédagogiques et des références de sites pour leurs diverses activités
Other infos	Groups of maximum 20 students Each teacher has at least one office hour when he / she can meet his / her students and can always be contacted via e-mail.
Faculty or entity in	ILV

charge

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Aims
Master [120] in Communication	CORP2M	5		٩
Master [120] in Journalism	EJL2M	5		Q
Master [120] in Information and Communication Science and Technology	STIC2M	5		٩
Master [120] in Information and Communication	COMU2M	5		٩			