Teacher(s)	Riaudel Olivier ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	The course will explore issues related to the idea of revealed religion, starting from the non-exclusive example of the Christian religion. It will do so on two axes: 1. More generally, it will ask in particular the following questions: Can a revelation claim the truth? How can divine revelation happen in history? What is the place of interpretation in the reading of inspired texts? 2. Theologically, it will deal with the relationship between faith and revelation, the phenomena of canonization, and the theologies of inspiration
Aims	At the end of this course, the student will be able: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - to discern the object and the method of fundamental theology as integral part, but also critical function and elucidation of theology; 1 - to learn to reflect on the problems posed by the articulation between the revealed texts and their interpretation as well as their historicity. - to familiar with the fundamental theological notions of revelation, inspiration, magisterium, lumen fidei ----- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
