Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	In-depth study of the Akkadian language. Alternating with LGLOR2614, this course of 22,5 hours deals with texts of varied content (historic, religious, etc.) in Akkadian dating essentially from the second and first millennium BC. To this course are added 7,5 hours of exercises which correspond to the personal preparation of an Akkadian text.
Aims	1 At the end of this course, the student will be capable to translate a cuneiform text and to make intelligent use of the dictionaries, grammars, and sign lists. ----- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Evaluation methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. Written exam (translation and analysis of a text in cuneiform).
Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. The selected texts are prepared by the students and the translations are discussed during the course, in order to reach a valid translation and a good understanding of the text.
Content	The course enables the student to deepen and widen his knowledge and experiences acquired at bachelor level. According to the year, the texts studied, for example, are: - extracts of Akkadian epics or myths (Gilgamesh, Enuma elish); - the royal neo-Assyrian inscriptions; - Akkadian inscriptions from Elam; - other literary texts.
