Evaluation methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuous assessment (summative and formative) based on the active participation in the course, presentations, different tests. • Oral exam based on an article prepared by the student, an improvised dialogue and questions related to the content of the syllabus. • Written exam: vocabulary, listening comprehension and reading comprehension Attendance at the course is compulsory. If the teacher deems it useful, he/she may ask the jury to prohibit students who have not regularly attended the learning activities to register for the exam (RGEE - art. 72). If the (health) situation does not allow for permanent evaluation (e.g. we need to switch to online and distance learning), then: --> The continuous assessment will be replaced by a portfolio. --> The written exam will take place on a platform using remote monitoring (proctoring). Taking into account the health situation, if the possibility is however left to us to organise a face-to-face written examination, we will opt for this possibility and will organise a face-to-face written examination. If the proctoring platform for the written examination cannot be used for any reason, the written examination will be cancelled and replaced by the oral assessment. This mark will then constitute 100% of the final mark. --> The oral assessment will take place on TEAMS. If the teacher has doubts about a student's performance in a written certification assessment, the teacher will question the student orally on the same subject in the days following the assessment in order to verify the student's competence.
Teaching methods	Due to the COVID-19 crisis, the information in this section is particularly likely to change. The UE (course) is mainly given face-to-face with e-learning support. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Revision of basic vocabulary and grammar. • Acquisition of new field-related vocabulary, concepts by means of reading exercises, oral exercises (debates, dialogues, etc.), listening exercises and vocabulary exercises. Depending on the (health) situation, the course can be given in a hybrid or "comodal" way or we might possibly have to switch to online and distance learning.
Content	The teaching unit is directed at interactive communication. The provided activities are aiming at the development of communication skills needed in the professional field, in commanding the code (general and specific vocabulary and grammar), necessary for putting these skills in practice. These activities will simulate real situations in which oral skills are required. They will be of two types: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. presentation and activation of functions of language directly linked to professional life (social skills, telephonic communication, role-playing patient-therapist) 2. individual and interactive speaking activities. This part includes a presentation on a subject related to the medical field.
