Teacher(s)	Burnet Régis ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	In order to achieve this end, - some significant text from the New Testament Letters (or Revelation) will be studied, with an explanation of the exegetical method and an illustration of the interest of basic exegetical tools; - some scientific literature about the texts will be read; - anthropological and theological aspects of the analysed texts will be developed, and their particular contribution in the context of biblical thought enlightened.
Aims	1 - understand the main procedures of biblical exegesis and apply them on a text from the New Testament Letters (or the Book of Revelation) ; ---- 2 - situate the anthropological and theological contribution of significant texts of the New Testament Letters ; ---- 3 - understand and criticise scientific works in Old Testament exegesis. ---- The contribution of this Teaching Unit to the development and command of the skills and learning outcomes of the programme(s) can be accessed at the end of this sheet, in the section entitled "Programmes/courses offering this Teaching Unit".
Content	2020-2021 This year's class will offer an ongoing reading of the Epistle to the Hebrews, a text of capital importance not only for evaluating the Jewish roots of Christianity, but also for understanding the extraordinarily rich reception of this text, as well as its theological implications. Chapter by chapter, therefore, we will go through the epistle, highlighting the rhetorical techniques used and the theological implications of the author's words.
Bibliography	Une bibliographie élaborée sera présentée pendant les séances du cours.
Other infos	Prerequisite: Read and understand an article in English.
Faculty or entity in charge	TEBI
