

5.00 credits

30.0 h

Q2

Teacher(s)	Engel Vincent ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites	None.
Main themes	This course explores, from a number of angles, the political ideas which have shaped the history of Europe. Particular attention will be paid to the emergence and development of values fundamental to European political culture, such as democracy, individual freedom, equality and solidarity. We will relate these discussions to current events.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : Students will gain a firm grasp of certain political concepts, such as freedom, democracy and equality. They will learn to understand the nuances of these concepts, and how they have evolved through the various schools of thought in Europe. 1 We will perform a critical analysis of the influence of these concepts on European political history and on contemporary issues in society, illustrating this with topical examples. Students will examine differences in the way these concepts are interpreted in Member States, in the light of their historical, cultural, political and social development.
Faculty or entity in charge	EURO

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Minor in French Studies	MINFRAN	5
Minor in European Studies	MINEURO	5
Minor in Culture and Creation	MINCUCREA	5
Minor in Literary Studies	MINLITT	5		