This learning unit is not being organized during this academic year.

Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	Written exam (2 hours)
Teaching methods	Lecture with readings and analysis of ancient documents (in translation)
Content	The subject chosen - which changes every year and is generally the subject of ongoing research - reflects the way in which, in Ancient History, the researcher is led to construct an inquiry, to ask appropriate questions of the available sources and to work out adequate answers. Emphasis is placed above all on the methodological aspect, so that students, whatever their discipline, can draw from the borderline cases offered by Ancient History elements of reflection for their own research.
Faculty or entity in charge	EHAC
