Teacher(s)	Christians Louis-Léon ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	A series of exercises, questions and suggested essays complete the course. Each student must successfully complete a sufficient number of these to validate the course. Failing this, a final written exam will be required, the size of which will depend on whether or not the student has already completed the series of exercises.
Teaching methods	Teaching is based on a portfolio of readings. Some PPT presentations and video clips complete the program.
Content	An introductory course in canon law from a theological perspective, challenged by a pragmatic ecclesiology. A theology of canon law based on a commentary on De omnium christifidelium obligationibus et iuribus (Codex 1983). This course will be the occasion for brief introductory excursions : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The importance of history for canon law</li> <li>• Major conceptual elements: the main areas of contemporary canon law</li> <li>• The Code of Canon Law 1983: conception and structure</li> <li>• Theologies of canon law: between law, pastoral care and theology</li> </ul>
