|-----------------------------|--|
| Language : | French |
| Place of the course | Louvain-la-Neuve |
| Prerequisites | LGLOR1331 et LGLOR1332, or equivalent level |
| Main themes | In-depth study of specific issues in synchronic or diachronic linguistics of Latin, with particular attention to Imperial and Late Latin. |
| Learning outcomes | At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 develop a linguistic reflection on questions and issues related to the Latin language; 2 identify, explain and illustrate different stages of evolution of the Latin language. |
| Evaluation methods | The evaluation of the learning outcomes will take place as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Practical sessions (including metric exercises and steady versions), which will be worth one fifth of the final grade (4/20). In case of failure in this part, a complementary test (version) will have to be presented at the September session. - Written test of theoretical knowledge and practical skills acquired during the course. This test will be worth two fifths of the final mark (8/20). It will take place in the June session. In case of failure, the remedial test will be held at the September session under the same conditions. - Oral test to check mastery of cursive reading. This test will be worth two fifths of the final mark (8/20). It will take place in the June session. In case of failure, the remedial test will be held at the September session under the same conditions. |
| Teaching methods | Alternating interactive class sessions and practical work. |
| Content | This Master's specialisation seminar will consist of two modules. The first one (30h) will deal with the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Latin metric (deep rules of the hexameter, as well as characteristics of the iambo-trochaic and aeolic verses). • Selected chapters of questions of Latin linguistics, intended to illustrate the evolutions of Latin in the post-classical period (imperial and late Latin). The second module (15 hours) will consist of a commented reading of a work of pre-classical language (in this case significant extracts from Tacitus' work). At the same time, students will read a long Latin text independently (cursive reading). This year it will be significant extracts from Seneca's Letters to Lucilius. |
