

2.00 credits

20.0 h

Q2

This learning unit is not open to incoming exchange students!

Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	The course provides an overview of the two main types of models in ergonomics, i.e. operator activity models and ergonomic intervention models. It mainly comprises presentation and discussion of the research done by the lecturers and researchers.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 This course is designed to formulate topics for research from problems in the workplace, to select methods to deal with these topics and to test the coherence and validity of the results.
Content	This course is designed to formulate topics for research from problems in the workplace, to select methods to deal with these topics and to test the coherence and validity of the results. The course provides an overview of the two main types of models in ergonomics, i.e. operator activity models and ergonomic intervention models. It mainly comprises presentation and discussion of the research done by the lecturers and researchers.
Other infos	Teaching method(s) : Theoretical presentations. Illustration and discussion on real research projects. Assessment methods : Development of a research topic and methodological plan.
Faculty or entity in charge	PSP

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Advanced Master in Risk Management and Well-Being in the Workplace	GRB2MC	3		