

15.00 credits

Q1 and Q2

Language :	English
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites	None
Main themes	This seminar will take place throughout the academic year and is intended to supervise the final thesis. Specialised guest speakers from the academic or professional world will present several current issues in European affairs to the students in order to suggest research questions for the students' thesis. They will also address technical aspects of these issues in order to familiarise students with them. Sessions will also be devoted to methodological aspects necessary for the realisation of the thesis.
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	Attendance and participation in the seminar. Reading of the thesis by a jury and oral defence by the student in front of the jury.
Teaching methods	Seminar led by specialised speakers
Content	Presentation of current issues in European affairs from different disciplinary angles. Quantitative aspects and documentary research related to the realisation of the final thesis.
Bibliography	Variable (selon les recommandations des intervenants spécialisés) Variable (depending on the recommendations of the specialist speakers)
Faculty or entity in charge	CLSM

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Advanced Master in European Business and Economic Policy	EBEP2MC	15		