

4.00 credits

30.0 h

Q1

Teacher(s)	Briquet Caroline ;Dalleur Olivia (coordinator) ;Lambaux Bénédicte ;Pinoy Sébastien ;Quennery Stefanie ;Spinewine Anne ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Bruxelles Woluwe
Main themes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Specific legislation on the exercise of the pharmaceutical art in Belgian hospitals. - Position the Pharmacy Service in the general structure of the hospital - Funding of the pharmacy within the hospital: management rules, ... - The principles of organization of the pharmacy department (purchasing, stock management, dispensation, technologies)
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 The course aims to provide students with the legal and normative rules governing the exercise of pharmacy in hospitals.
Evaluation methods	In this course, students are assessed in two ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - continuous assessment including activities to be validated on Moodle and a compulsory assignment to be submitted on Moodle - a written examination in session
Content	The course links between the regulatory requirements (legislation, Royal Decrees and Ministerial Orders), and the practice experienced by students during their trainings (supply management, dispensation...). How the legal and normative requirements are encountered in practice every day?
Bibliography	Diaporamas mis à disposition des étudiants matériel disponible sur Moodle (articles de loi,...)
Faculty or entity in charge	FARM

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Advanced Master in Hospital Pharmacy	HOPI2MC	4		