

The version you're consulting is not final. This course description may change. The final version will be published on 1st June.

5.00 credits

30.0 h

Q1 and Q2

Teacher(s)	Darkaoui Khadija ;
Language :	Dutch
Place of the course	Bruxelles Saint-Louis
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : To achieve a strong command of written and oral Dutch (the level is equivalent to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages level B2). To achieve a fine understanding of authentic material, written or oral, in the varieties of Dutch spoken in the Netherlands and in Belgium.
Evaluation methods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Formative assessment: The students have to prepare several presentations throughout the year. They will receive constructive feedback from the teacher on their presentation skills and on their language proficiency. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Summative assessment during the exam session: Written and oral exam in January and in June. The weighting between the written and the oral exam is 60% for the written exam and 40% for the oral exam. The weighting between January and June is 50/50. Participation in the course "practical exercises" will be taken into consideration in the calculation of the overall course grade. The written exam will consist of a listening comprehension test and a reading comprehension test. The oral exam will consist of two open questions on the topics covered in class. Students will be allowed 15 minutes to prepare, and will then present their answers for 10 minutes. The use of tools based on artificial intelligence for the preparation of assignments is forbidden in order to allow students to develop the language skills corresponding to the level expected for this course. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Formative assessment: The students have to prepare several presentations throughout the year. They will receive constructive feedback from the teacher on their presentation skills and on their language proficiency. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Summative assessment during the exam session: Written and oral exam in January and in June. The weighting between the written and the oral exam is 60% for the written exam and 40% for the oral exam. The weighting between January and June is 50/50. The use of tools based on artificial intelligence for the preparation of personal assignments is forbidden in order to allow students to develop their own linguistic skills to the level expected for this course.
Teaching methods	The course adopts a seminar format with interactive exercises that require the active participation of the students. Students are regularly asked to prepare exercises at home before coming to class, in order to allow for a good progress of the course.
Content	The course concentrates on different themes related to the Dutch and Flemish language and culture: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The place of Dutch in the world • The difficulties of Dutch • The Anglicization of Dutch • Flemish movies • The concept of identity in the Flemish community • Integration and immigration in Belgium ... Writing exercises: summaries, formal and informal texts and e-mails, description exercises, and so on. Oral expression: Spontaneous conversation exercises in the form of debates, role plays, and other creative exercises; home-prepared presentations on cultural and linguistic topics. Reading: Understanding of authentic texts in Dutch related to the different themes evoked above. Listening: Understanding of authentic videos related to the different themes evoked above.

Bibliography	/
Other infos	A syllabus will be available at the reprography. Course materials (videos, articles, hand-outs, ...) will be available on Moodle.
Faculty or entity in charge	PHLB

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Bachelor in Modern Languages and Letters: German, Dutch and English	GERB1BA	5		