

The version you're consulting is not final. This course description may change. The final version will be published on 1st June.

3.00 credits

30.0 h

Q1

Teacher(s)	Oguma Rie (coordinator) ;
Language :	English
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites	None
Main themes	This course aims to help students develop a foundation in the four skills of Japanese language; listening, speaking, reading and writing. It focuses on listening and speaking in class, while reading and writing are mainly learned at home. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learn basic grammatical structures for simple conversations, such as introducing themselves and expressing likes and dislikes. • Develop a repertoire of vocabulary which will allow students to talk about themselves and topics of personal relevance. • Learn expressions to use in daily situations such as ordering at a restaurant, shopping, etc. • Learn pronunciation from the teacher of Japanese native speaker. • Discover 3 Japanese writing systems; Hiragana, Katakana and Kanji.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • introduce oneself, including information of one's family, age, study, job and hobby. • talk about the topics of daily conversation, such as greetings and schedules. • describe things using adjectives and describe one's routine using verbs. • ask simple questions on prices in shopping, the way to the destination, etc. • read and write all the Hiragana and Katakana letters and recognize basic Kanjis.
Evaluation methods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Final exam, which consists of listening and writing, including controls of writing Japanese letters. • Performance of assignments and active participation are also considered in the grade.
Teaching methods	The course focuses mainly on acquiring oral communication skills. Students will participate in many speaking activities and interactions with other students.
Content	The course is designed for an initiation to Japanese language. Students will learn useful expressions for basic conversation, grammatical concepts as well as writing symbols such as Hiragana, Katakana and Kanji. The course also aims to provide students Japanese cultural explanation as well as linguistic knowledge.
Inline resources	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. UCLouvain Moodle page is available to help students review the contents of the classes. 2. Free Apps for learning Japanese Hiragana, Katakana and Kanji: https://minato-jf.jp/Home/JapaneseApplication 3. Free self-study Japanese online courses: https://minato-jf.jp/Home/Index 4. Free website for learning Japanese pronunciation: https://japanese-pronunciation.com/ 5. Free Online Japanese Accent Dictionary: https://www.gavo.t.u-tokyo.ac.jp/ojad/fre/pages/home
Other infos	Enrollment of this course requires the teacher's authorization !
Faculty or entity in charge	ILV

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Master [120] in French and Romance Languages and Literatures : French as a Foreign Language	FLE2M	5		