Teacher(s)	Cariat Nicolas ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Bruxelles Saint-Louis
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : To provide a general theoretical framework of the subject matter; To support the identification of the relevant provisions to solve each question; To allow the acquisition of some essential reflexes in practice.
Evaluation methods	Written examination, including theoretical questions (ex. definition of concepts covered during the course) and practical questions (ex. drafting of a reasoned decision for awarding a public contract).
Teaching methods	Lectures. In light of the limited number of class hours and the wide range of experience of the Master's students, the theoretical framework is covered in broad strokes and illustrated by "particular questions", drawn from experience, and which are examined more in detail. Within the limit of the time available, the students are encouraged to share their professional experience in relation with the "particular questions" covered during the course.
Content	The course relates to the procedures for awarding public contracts (primarily in the sectors known as "traditional"). Initially, the European and Belgian sources of regulations (currently being revised) are detailed. Next, the material scope of application (definition of public contracts for work, supplies and services) and the personal scope of application (concept of contracting authority) are studied. Finally, the successive stages of the procedure of awarding a public contract are reviewed: choice of the means of awarding, drafting and approving the special terms of reference, prior announcement, submission of the bids, examination of the bids (regularity, qualitative selection and choice of the tenderer), drafting of the reasoned decision, details on the tenderer and the unsuccessful tenderers and the conclusion of the contract. Characteristics of the disputes resulting from public contracts are lastly (briefly) covered.
Bibliography	Une bibliographie détaillée est fournie. Les étudiants doivent disposer des textes légaux et réglementaires, lors des séances et de l'examen Renvoi à des ouvrages de référence (non obligatoires) pour approfondir la matière.
Other infos	Support: a detailed outline of the course
