

5.00 credits

30.0 h

Q2

Teacher(s)	Dorssemont Filip ;Vielle Pascale ;
Language :	English
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	There will be an oral exam. No permanent evaluation.
Teaching methods	The course will be taught ex cathedra
Content	The course covers the corpus of international social law proclaiming the fundamental rights of workers, emanating from the legal orders of the United Nations, the International Labour Organization and the Council of Europe (European Convention on Human Rights and the European Social Charter). In addition to the institutional aspects necessary to understand the issues at stake (history, institutions, methods of control and constraint), the course will examine how these international instruments deal with certain problems, both in the field of labor law and social security.as well as the fundamental rights underpinning these problems.
Inline resources	A compendium with a course outline and documents is available on moodle.
Bibliography	L'ouvrage "L'esprit de Philadelphie" d'Alain Supiot est recommandé
Faculty or entity in charge	BUDR

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Master [120] in Law	DROI2M	5
Master [120] in Law (shift schedule)	DRHD2M	5
Master [120] in Law (shift schedule)	DRLN2M	5		