Teaching methods	Ex-cathedra courses; Interventions by internal or external guests at UCLouvain; Solo and/or group work in the classroom and/or at home
Content	This teaching unit offers a multidimensional introduction to the field of sport through three main axes: legal, institutional and economic. Students discover on the one hand the foundations of private and public law that govern sport and its administration, and on the other hand the structure and organization of the sports system in Belgium and internationally, highlighting the role of the different institutions and their interactions. Finally, the EU addresses the economic principles applied to sport, including marketing, professionalisation and their effects on the evolution and organisation of the sector.
Other infos	This course is reserved for FSM students. Access is possible to other UCLouvain students on the basis of an application to be submitted to the course coordinator.
