leuro1201

2026

Basis of the European integration: history, geography, culture, structures

5.00 credits	37.5 h	Q1

Teacher(s)	Dujardin Vincent ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	To be able to assess European integration's highlights, to underline individual and institutional factors, to measure the impact of economic and external elements and to analyze the interactions with internal politics' concerns as well as the influence of popular convictions.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 Students will be able to define what is at stake in these projects, crises and revivals whatever their political, economic, military or institutional components. Students will also have to point out similarities and differences between European integration's various highlights and evaluate whether crises modified the way paved by the founding fathers. They will also have to show how history may help to shed light on present events.
Evaluation methods	Oral examination. The student is asked to prepare answers to a series of questions presented at the first class and also listed in the power point presentation of the course. The student presents his answers to two questions drawn out of the list, during an oral examination.
Teaching methods	Lectures.
Content	The course focuses on the European integration in its various dimensions: - the origins; the Hellenic, Roman, and Christian legacies - the first attempts, from the middle ages to the Rome Treaties - the political construction in the 20th century, from the Rome Treaties until today - the concepts of European culture and identity
Inline resources	Documentation and material of the course available on the Moodle site of the course.
Bibliography	A définir par le titulaire.
Other infos	Prerequisite : none.
Faculty or entity in charge	EURO

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)

Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Minor in European Studies	MINEURO	5
Bachelor in Modern Languages and Literatures: German, Dutch and English	GERM1BA	5
Bachelor in Ancient and Modern Languages and Literatures	LAFR1BA	5
Approfondissement 'Principes de maîtrise de l'actualité' (accessible uniquement pour réinscription)	APPMONDE	5
Bachelor in French and Romance Languages and Literatures : General	ROM1BA	5
Bachelor in Modern Languages and Literatures : General	ROGE1BA	5		