Interdisciplinary Introduction to Gender Studies

5.00 credits	30.0 h	Q2

This learning unit is not open to incoming exchange students!

Teacher(s)	Rizzi Ester Lucia ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	The course is based on continuous assessment (15% of the grade), a final group dissertation (30%), and an oral presentation (55%). In the second examination session , the continuous assessment grade will be retained. The exam will involve submitting revised versions of the assignment and oral presentation, incorporating the individual feedback received during the copy viewing session (only possible on a single date, which will be communicated by the student secretariat). The professor may propose to the jury to refuse the registration for the assessment of any student who has not regularly attended the course (i.e., more than four unjustified absences). In this course, the use of AI is prohibited.
Teaching methods	The seminar is based on an active pedagogy to present a gender issue in several steps. At the end of the seminar, you will be able to carry out research on gender linking your field work to the scientific literature. Most of classes will be based on the principle of the flipped classroom
Content	This seminar involves an in-depth analysis of a gender-related issue. The professor will guide you through the research process, and you are encouraged to apply your own disciplinary perspective.
Bibliography	Sous la supervision de l'enseignante, vous allez construire le portefeuille de lectures qui traitent de votre question de recherche. D'autres références seront disponibles sur Moodle.
