Teacher(s)	Chantrain Gaelle ;
Language :	French > English-friendly
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	Evaluation is based on in-class participation (10%), continuous monitoring consisting in two short written tests (20% + 20% = 40%) and a final oral exam based on a preliminary written preparation (50%).
Teaching methods	The course has the form of an interactive seminar. It comprises the preliminary preparation of text sections by the student before class, in-class group reading and discussion of texts, translations, analyses and commentary of the texts in their context.
Content	This course gives the opportunity to the student to deepen and broaden their knowledge and practice of the texts acquired during the first semester. The accent is placed on the transition with Late Egyptian and the main resulting linguistic shifts. It proposes an immersive initiation to Late Egyptian hieratic texts, as well as the reading of texts in Egyptian de Tradition.
