

5.00 credits

45.0 h

Q1

Teacher(s)	Seewang Laila ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	Students will be assessed through: In-class writing assignments In-class discussion sessions Final exam
Teaching methods	The course includes the following learning formats: a) lectures b) site visits c) reading assignments d) group discussions e) writing exercises f) final exam
Content	This course introduces students to a set of global examples of architecture from prehistory to the present in order to examine the way in which architecture responds to cultural, historical, political, economic, social, formal and material contexts.
Faculty or entity in charge	LOCI

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Minor in Urban Architecture	MINARCH	5
Bachelor in Engineering : Architecture	ARCH1BA	5		