

5.00 credits

30.0 h

Q1 and Q2

This learning unit is not being organized during this academic year.

This learning unit is not open to incoming exchange students!

Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	MCQ exam on campus (or remotely if imposed by the sanitary measures). The MCQ exam consists of 30 items with 4 answer options. One point is awarded for each correct answer and no points are awarded for no answer or incorrect answers. The exam is organized in the June and September sessions (not in January).
Teaching methods	Online course (MOOC)
Content	This course offers interdisciplinary perspectives on various cross-cutting themes related to migration. A dozen professors and researchers in the humanities, from six different Faculties, are behind this program: anthropologists, economists, demographers, lawyers, sociologists and psychologists. They join forces with Belgian and international experts to inform, exchange and reason about the issues raised by migration. At the end of this course, you will be able to: - Analyze migratory movements and their root causes - Describe their impact on family life - Master the legal terms underlying migration - Analyze the effects of migration on the demographics and economy of the host country - Deconstruct the prevailing discourse on migrants - Build a more objective vision of the migration phenomenon Course Structure: INTRODUCTION: Migration MODULE 1: Migration and Discourse - The social psychology of intergroup relations - Media Discourses - The weight of words: The issue of stereotypical representations and their impact MODULE 2: Migration Trajectories and Trends: Current Status and Perspectives - Measuring, describing and understanding international migration - International migration in the world - International migration in Belgium MODULE 3: Migration, Employment and Economy - Immigration and economy - Immigration and public finances - Immigration and the labor market - Other economic effects MODULE 4: Migration and Protection - Institutional Violence and Migration - The definition of a refugee - Elements of the asylum procedure - Testimonies and illustrations MODULE 5: Migration trajectory, stories. - Diversity of contexts and trajectories - The place of the narrative in migration policies and more specifically in the asylum procedure - Testimonies MODULE 6: Family and migration dynamics: cross effects

	Transnational" families and intergenerational solidarities: the prism of care Plasticity of kinship in the face of migratory laws
Inline resources	See the course Moodle
Other infos	All useful information (contact person; link to the MOOC and registration key; practical arrangements; examination arrangements) will be communicated to you via the course Moodle.
Faculty or entity in charge	PSAD