Teacher(s)	Rihoux Benoît ;
Language :	English
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	Evaluation throughout the workshop (continuous evaluation)
Teaching methods	Highly interactive. [under development]. With guidance from the instructor (Prof. B. Rihoux) + tutoring by a teaching assistant.
Content	This interactive, workshop-style training takes stock of all prior methods training (qualitative and quantitative) and guides each student through some "applied tips and tricks" enabling him/her to build a solid research project with a robust design and adequate methods. Besides 'classical' qualitative (case-based) and quantitative (statistical) methodologies, two other methodological approaches are presented 'hand-on': (1) systematic cross-case analysis and in particular QCA (Qualitative Comparative Analysis); and (2) mixed- and multimethod designs.
