This biannual learning unit is not being organized in 2026-2027 !

Teacher(s)	Join-Lambert Arnaud ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	These objectives will be achieved after : - a clarification about the connections between theology and liturgy ; - an analysis on a liturgical question ; - an initiation into the use of the main tools.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 - search and read critically the liturgical sources ; 2 - achieve a theological study in liturgy ; 3 - include an ecumenical standpoint in liturgical studies (comparative liturgy).
Content	In 2025-2026: Liturgy and the Bible After centuries of differing and conflicting views among Christian denominations in the West, there is no longer any doubt that the Bible and liturgy are the two main sources of all Christian life: for each believer and for churches and communities as a whole. The Bible and liturgy are a constant challenge for theological research and teaching. At the beginning of the 21st century, we can see a welcome new convergence, which has developed over the last few decades despite certain controversies and obstacles. The course will address several questions: biblical revelation, the various liturgical hermeneutics of the Bible; the history of the relationship between the Bible and liturgy; lectionaries; the Bible as a liturgical signifier; non-verbal supports for the Bible in prayer and liturgy.
