GEHD2M1 - Introduction

Introduction

Introduction

The Master in Management (60) evening course, spread over two years, covers most of the basic management programme. It aims to train you in the main management skills to enrich your basic training, previously acquired in another field.

Your Profile

You:

- have professional experience and you want to strengthen your skills with solid management knowledge;
- want to meet other persons with different training and experience;
- wish to give added value to your profile by developing an understanding of the management issues of the organisations or companies where you will be called upon to practice your profession.

Your Future Job

Management graduates have careers in many sectors: industry, banking and insurance, retail, auditing, private companies, public bodies, SMEs, multinationals, consulting firms.

They are responsible for: management controller, company auditor, investment advisor, financial analyst, HR development manager, project manager, IT consultant, etc.

Your Programme

This Master offers you:

- an overview of business management;
- a high-level programme that reconciles the demands of professional and family life with those of university studies;
- an innovative pedagogical approach that offers you the opportunity to develop a managerial vision of your professional expertise.

Graduate vision

The Master 60 in Management evening course prepares the graduate to meet the challenge of becoming a socially responsible professional with a global overview of the management professions.

The Master 60 in Management evening course, is a programme that develops the basic skills and expertise necessary for management functions in public or private, national or international, commercial or non-commercial organisations.

A student registering for this programme has already been involved in an active professional life for at least 3 years. Throughout the programme, the student calls on this experience and compares it to the knowledge, tools and theoretical and methodological frameworks, and vice versa. Thus, the Master's programme allows him to consider and enrich his professional and personal development by incorporating an academic approach, a reflective view and critical detachment.

At the end of this programme, the graduate will be:

Responsible:

He is capable of implementing socially responsible management practices in private or public organisations.

A professional:

- He will have assimilated basic management theories and concepts for efficient, expert use in a future professional environment;
- He is capable of determining the complex and varied issues that commercial or non-commercial organisations encounter in management fields.
- He is capable of locating organisations in their socio-economic and institutional context, understanding the interdependences between the organisation and the environment and translating them into management decisions;
- He will have developed basic skills in all key management functions.

Aware of the responsibility inherent to his profession, the graduate will have acquired the mindset of a critical participant, capable of making decisions in organisational environments by putting ethical and socially responsible management values at the centre of his concerns. He will have adopted an approach of continuous development that will allow him to be a professional demonstrating flexibility, capable of adapting and evolving positively in his environment.

The competency framework

At the end of this programme, the graduate is capable of:

Introduction

The exit profile of the Master 60 in Management evening course graduate is specified by the LSM competency framework, with in particular:

- an academic education centred on management training, with an overall approach to management functions;
- priority given to the following skills:
  - Acting as a socially responsible participant,
  - Mastering knowledge,
  - Acting in an interface role, making use of his professional experience;
- a possibility of developing some of these skills in greater depth through his choice of thesis.

Programme structure

The Master 60 in Management Sciences at a staggered timetable, spread over two academic years, is composed of the following 4 elements:

1. Courses, 7 for a total of 35 credits, introducing the main disciplines making up the management sciences;
2. A 5 credit course on the principles and issues of corporate social responsibility, a core value of the Louvain School of Management;
3. An in-depth study in a management field through an elective course for 5 credits;
4. A final dissertation, 15 credits, consisting in the realization of two individual papers.

The evening program is spread over two years (about 30 credits per year). The courses are organised on a biennial basis (some courses are given in even years, others in odd years).

The evening course is designed to enable people engaged in professional life to follow this programme in the best conditions: staggered workload, staggered schedule, adult public referring to its experience and professional projects.

Please consult the University's Enrolment Office at Louvain-la-Neuve.

For special LSM procedures, please consult the top of this page.

Teaching method

This program, specifically designed for working people, alternates theoretical presentations and case studies in order to allow a concrete understanding of management issues.

The program attracts an audience from a wide variety of educational and professional backgrounds. The confrontations of different practices and points of view, both between students and professors, and between students, offer an enrichment of the students' perspective on the different fields of management.

Students are invited in various individual or group assignments - to reflect on their professional practice or to study and solve management problems related to their professional field.

The evaluation methods are diverse: individual and/or group work, written or oral exams, final work (TFE).

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams. More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".
