HORI2M1 - Introduction

Introduction

Introduction

The objective of this master is to provide advanced training in the different fields of oriental studies, with a focus upon the linguistic, literary, historical and cultural aspects of the civilizations studied.

At the end of this master, the students:

- will have been trained in literary and philological analysis in the oriental languages they studied;
- will have developed, through preparing their final assignment, deeper reflections on a specific discipline from within oriental studies.

On the basis of the electives chosen, the students will have acquired skills in the field of either the ancient Mediterranean world, or the Jewish, Oriental Christian and Muslim-Arab world, or of the Asian world (India and the Far East).

Your future job

Students of the course go on to work in the private sector, the public sector and research positions.

They hold a variety of positions there for which their education has provided them with the necessary polyvalence, precision and capacity to learn.

The intellectual rigour and open-mindedness acquired during their training allows the students to establish themselves quickly in their working environment, even if they have not necessarily acquired all the specific technical skills in advance.

Your programme

The master 60 can be completed in a year and offers supplementary training in fields relating to the ancient Oriental and Medieval periods, based upon the study of ancient languages used from the Mediterranean Basin to the Far East.

HORI2M1 - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

The [Master \[60\] in Ancient Languages and Literatures : Oriental Studies](#) trains specialists in Oriental texts and civilisations, with a particular focus on the following fields: the Ancient Near East, Pharaonic Egypt, Byzantium, Oriental Christianity, Islam, the Arab world, India and the Far East.

By working on original sources, this course develops an ability to produce precise and rigorous analyses, guided by a critical mind-set and intellectual independence, with a view to interpreting an author's ideas or a question relating to societal issue in its context. These qualities will enable access to employment outside the strict domain of ancient languages and literatures.

The challenge for students, in an immediate civilisation such as ours, is to promote the rigorous analysis of facts on the basis of primary sources and from a long-term perspective.

On successful completion of this programme, each student is able to :

1. Maîtriser et appliquer des savoirs dans le domaine spécifique des langues et littératures orientales.
 - 1.1. Maîtriser une ou plusieurs langues orientales au niveau du lexique, de la grammaire (morphologie et syntaxe) et de la dialectologie, dans leur fonctionnement synchronique et leur évolution diachronique ;
 - 1.2. Appliquer les savoirs lexicaux et grammaticaux à des textes orientaux, dans le cadre de différentes activités : exercices de traduction avec translittération préalable, recherches personnelles, préparation d'exposés oraux et production de travaux écrits ;
 - 1.3. Acquérir une connaissance approfondie des auteurs et des Œuvres des littératures orientales étudiées, en maîtrisant les outils et méthodes d'analyse et d'interprétation de ces textes.
2. Développer une approche scientifique des sociétés et cultures orientales en lien avec les langues et littératures étudiées.
 - 2.1. Avoir une bonne connaissance de l'histoire du monde oriental (institutions, sociétés, philosophie, religions et cultures) ;
 - 2.2. Situer les textes dans leurs contextes historique et culturel en vue d'en saisir la pertinence dans un projet de reconstruction historique;
 - 2.3. Grâce à l'option choisie, élargir ses connaissances au domaine de l'archéologie du Proche-Orient et de l'Égypte antiques, au domaine des études judaïques, chrétiennes et musulmanes, ou au domaine des cultures asiatiques modernes.
3. Mener à bien un travail de recherche personnel dans le domaine des langues et littératures orientales et en communiquer les résultats.
 - 3.1. Collecter les informations au moyen des outils heuristiques adéquats, en vue d'établir un corpus pertinent des sources primaires (en langues orientales), de traduire ces textes et de les analyser de façon critique, d'établir et utiliser une bibliographie pertinente des sources secondaires ;
 - 3.2. Développer une méthodologie spécifique au sujet traité et la mettre en Œuvre dans le traitement du sujet ;
 - 3.3. Traiter un sujet bien délimité : fournir un état de la question, définir une problématique, produire une argumentation claire et structurée, formuler des résultats ;
 - 3.4. Examiner une thématique en mettant en évidence ses origines, son développement, sa circulation et son éventuelle permanence au sein des littératures orientales ;
 - 3.5. Communiquer par écrit les résultats d'un travail de recherche personnel, en satisfaisant aux exigences formelles de la rédaction (citations référencées, langue et style, structure et mise en page).
4. Acquérir et développer des compétences générales utilisables en milieu professionnel.
 - 4.1. Mobiliser les savoirs acquis dans les différents domaines des sciences humaines, en vue d'analyser en profondeur un fait, un document, un discours ou une problématique ;

 - 4.5. Acquérir l'autonomie nécessaire au développement des facultés d'auto-apprentissage tout au long de la vie.
5. S'il choisit l'option en monde méditerranéen oriental antique : approfondir sa connaissance du monde méditerranéen oriental antique.

Teaching method

The different paths available to students allow them to shape their own training in line with their skills and interests and, in this way, to have relative autonomy in their training programme. The various different areas of study provide a series of coherent and high quality courses.

- Interdisciplinarity is encouraged via the following methods : the student decides which options he will take in the Master (60 credits) (in making this choice, he will be guided by the programme's interdisciplinary courses which complement the more philological part of the training).
- Variety of teaching methods (including e-learning) : use of multi-media for ancient languages.
- Range of learning situations : individual and group work, seminars and lectures. Individual guidance for the individual final project (TFE).

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams. More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

The written and oral exams aim to measure knowledge acquired as well as the student's know-how and communication skills. — Some subjects, geared towards helping the student develop research and personal criticism skills, are the subject of presentations and discussions spread over the year (permanent assessment).

Courses are evaluated according to current university regulations (see General Examination Regulations). Students may find further information on specific evaluation methods in the course descriptions.

To obtain a student's average, the grades awarded for each course unit are weighted by their respective credits.

Mobility and/or Internationalisation outlook

The participation in an international mobility scheme is not authorized within the framework of this 1-year master's programme.

Under the agreements between UCLouvain and KU Leuven, some courses in Greek language and literature as well as courses in various fields of Oriental Studies (Egyptology, Ancient Near East, etc.) may be selected from the KU Leuven programmes.
