LAFR1BA - Introduction

Introduction

Introduction

A marked interest in Latin languages and civilisation and a marked liking for French studies are excellent reasons to embark on this venture

By the end of the first cycle, you will have

- acquired solid general, literary and historical knowledge;
- developed your writing and argumentation skills;
- developed your literary sensitivity and be capable of commenting on and interpreting a poetic, narrative or dramatic text;
- powerful tools at your disposal for analysing language.

Your profile

- You like clear thinking, rigorous assessment, the analysis of human and social problems, the precision and beauty of the oral and written language.
- You are interested in history, philosophy, psychology, languages, culture, arts and letters in the widest meaning of the term?

You are ready to start studying philosophy, arts and letters! Of course you may prepare yourself more intensively by reading, a language course abroad, summer schools etc.

Your future job

Our graduates occupy a wide range of posts as their training has provided them with the necessary flexibility, rigour and ability to learn

- they are teachers, researchers, booksellers, journalists, advisers;
- they work in communication, valuation, government service, the financial world and the voluntary sector, etc.;
- they organise events, work in publishing, run documentation centres, etc.

Your programme

The Bachelor's degree offers you

- specialised training in Latin and French languages and letters from antiquity to the present day;
- solid training in humanities;
- complex methodological skills relating to history, literary study and the study of languages;
- a high level in French, skills in writing and analysing the language.

Having gained your Bachelor's degree, you can continue your training by doing the [Master \[120\] in Ancient and Modern Languages and Literatures](#).

LAFR1BA - Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

The Bachelor in Ancient and Modern Languages and Literatures trains students seeking to become specialists in the study of the French and Latin languages. By examining relevant texts and resources, they will gradually develop the ability to master the fundamentals of French and Latin – in terms of linguistics, grammar, syntax and vocabulary – and of literary genres and the history of literature in these two languages. In Latin, they will also be able to easily translate intermediate-level texts. The challenge for them, at the end of the third year, is to be able to use the knowledge they have acquired to write up an individual assignment of limited scope, applying rigorous academic criteria.

On successful completion of this programme, each student is able to :

Spécifiquement en tant que bachelier en Langues et littératures modernes et anciennes,

1. Développer un savoir informé sur les langues française et latine (linguistique et littérature) et utiliser aisément leurs différents contenus, à partir des cadres et balises progressivement acquis.
 - 1.1. Maîtriser les fondements du français et du latin aux différents niveaux de l'analyse linguistique et pragmatique (phonétique et phonologie, lexicque et phraséologie, syntaxe, sémantique, texte et discours).
 - 1.2. Mobiliser et appliquer les savoirs acquis (lexicaux et grammaticaux) à des textes français et latins, dans le cadre de différentes activités (exercices de version et de thème, textes argumentatifs, dissertations, manipulations de formes grammaticales, recherches personnelles).
 2. Recourir de manière adéquate au vocabulaire, aux notions et aux concepts propres aux différents domaines des langues française et latine.
 - 2.1. Trouver et gérer l'information de base : en récolter, classer, comparer et analyser les données essentielles.
 - 2.2. Situer dans le temps, analyser et interpréter les différents courants et genres des deux littératures étudiées ainsi que leurs auteurs et Œuvres principaux.
 3. Mobiliser les savoirs acquis dans les deux domaines étudiés pour reconnaître, situer et décrire des cas concrets, tout comme pour leur appliquer les grilles et méthodes d'analyse requises.
 - 3.1. Situer les productions issues des deux domaines dans leurs contextes historique, social et culturel.
 - 3.2. Développer l'assise d'une approche critique : identifier les sources originales, en apprécier la provenance, la valeur et en proposer une présentation concise.
 - 3.3. Mettre les connaissances de base acquises dans les deux disciplines au service de l'analyse de textes littéraires et de corpus langagiers en français comme en latin.
 4. Maîtriser la langue française, tant à l'oral qu'à l'écrit, en vue de produire un discours de niveau universitaire sur des questions de littérature et de linguistique dans les différents domaines des langues française et latine.
 - 4.1. Manier les principaux éléments du discours universitaire (bibliographie, problématique, méthodologies, pratiques d'analyse) acquis dans le cadre des enseignements de littérature et de linguistiques et valables pour diverses disciplines des sciences humaines (philosophie, histoire, histoire de l'art).
 - 4.2. Connaître et utiliser adéquatement les différents outils fondamentaux de la recherche de chacun des domaines étudiés (bibliographies générales et spécialisées, ressources électroniques).
 - 4.3. Connaître les fondements de la philosophie, de l'histoire, des arts et des littératures de l'Occident (théorie littéraire et linguistique).
 5. Tisser des liens entre les différentes disciplines étudiées, afin de développer une vue globale de l'étude des langues et des littératures, et de stimuler une curiosité intellectuelle pour les sciences de l'homme, dans leur diversité et complémentarité.
 - 5.1. Connaître et utiliser adéquatement les différents outils fondamentaux de la recherche de chacun des domaines étudiés (bibliographies générales et spécialisées, ressources électroniques).
 - 5.2. Connaître les fondements de la philosophie, de l'histoire, des arts et des littératures de l'Occident (théorie littéraire et linguistique).
 6. Avoir une bonne connaissance des différents contextes historiques, culturels et institutionnels dans lesquels s'inscrivent les langues et littératures françaises et latines.
 - 6.1. Avoir une bonne connaissance des différents contextes historiques, culturels et institutionnels dans lesquels s'inscrit la civilisation romaine.
 - 6.2. Faire preuve d'esprit d'analyse et de synthèse.
 7. Problématiser une question de recherche à partir de l'observation de données littéraires et linguistiques précises pour en analyser le contenu et les modes de fonctionnement.
 - 7.1. Collecter et manier les informations essentielles sur un thème ou une problématique donnés au moyen d'outils et de stratégies judicieusement choisis.
 - 7.2. Communiquer par écrit les résultats d'un travail de recherche personnel d'ampleur limitée.
 8. Convoquer ces savoirs et savoir-faire, pour développer dans la vie quotidienne un savoir-être capable de soutenir l'étudiant dans la construction de sa citoyenneté et de son rapport à la société.
- Comme tout bachelier de la Faculté de philosophie, arts et lettres,
9. Maîtriser avec rigueur et efficacité les discours universitaires, tant sur le plan de la compréhension que sur celui de la rédaction.

10. Devenir acteur de sa formation : gérer de manière autonome son travail (définir les priorités, anticiper et planifier l'ensemble de ses activités dans le temps), faire preuve de recul critique sur ses propres acquis, ses méthodes d'apprentissage et ses productions et intégrer par soi-même de nouvelles connaissances, méthodologies et compétences.
11. Mobiliser les compétences et savoirs disciplinaires acquis pour développer des attitudes d'ouverture à l'interculturalité, d'engagement citoyen et de positionnement critique vis-à-vis de soi-même, de la société, et des savoirs.
12. Communiquer à l'oral et à l'écrit de façon claire, cohérente, argumentée et avec aisance sur des sujets d'ordre général ou relatifs au domaine d'études dans au moins une langue moderne (anglais, néerlandais ou allemand).
13. Démontrer une connaissance et une compréhension critique de savoirs approfondis dans la (les) discipline(s) relative(s) à son choix de mineure.
14. Maîtriser un socle de connaissances fondamentales dans les domaines de la philosophie, de l'histoire, de l'histoire de l'art, de l'archéologie et des littératures.

Programme structure

The bachelor programme in Ancient and Modern Languages and Letters totals 180 credits over 3 years (3 x 60 credits). It consists of a basic major syllabus of 150 credits and a minor syllabus of 30 credits (2 x 15 credits, over years 2 and 3).

Three pivotal courses make up the 150 credits of the major orientation of the bachelor syllabus:

- (1) introduction to the human sciences (historical criticism, arts and civilisations, European literature, modern languages, philosophy, language science, logic and argumentation, anthropology and psychology, religious sciences);
- (2) methodological and disciplinary training in Latin language and literature (literary history, explanation of authors [prose and poetry], Latin syntax, introduction to the sciences of Antiquity);
- (3) methodological and disciplinary training in French languages and literature (literary history, theory of literature, analysis of texts [Ancient and Middle French: the novel, poetry and theatre in the French language], francophone literature in Belgium, French syntax, French linguistics [synchronic and diachronic considerations]).

The first year of undergraduate studies starts with a term of general foundation courses common to all of the faculty's Bachelor's programmes. Students will be introduced to history, art history, and literature, providing them with a solid grounding and the opportunity to transfer to a different programme if they so wish at the end of the first term.

They will also receive discipline-specific courses from the first term of Year 1. These will become their core courses in the second term of Year 1.

From Year 2, students continue their studies in their major subject and are also invited to choose a 30-credit minor with a view to broadening their intellectual and professional horizons. This minor can be selected from another faculty discipline or from another UCLouvain faculty, subject to certain admission requirements set by the programme managers.

○ Minor or additional module (30 credits)

Students must choose a minor from the University Faculty programmes, subject to possible prerequisites required by the programme managers. Students spread these courses over the second and third blocs of the Bachelor programme so that each academic year comes to a total of 60 credits.

List of available minors

Students are encouraged to expand their intellectual and professional horizons by choosing an minor of 30 credits from the list below. Access to certain minors (*) require that prerequisites are respected.

15 credits of the minor must be followed during each of the second and third years.

The study adviser, Fiorella Flamini, is available to students seeking advice on their choice of minor.

Course prerequisites

A document entitled #nom_fichier_pdf# specifies the activities (course units - CU) with one or more pre-requisite(s) within the study programme, that is the CU whose learning outcomes must have been certified and for which the credits must have been granted by the jury before the student is authorised to sign up for that activity.

These activities are identified in the study programme: their title is followed by a yellow square.

As the prerequisites are a requirement of enrolment, there are none within a year of a course.

The prerequisites are defined for the CUs for different years and therefore influence the order in which the student can enrol in the programme's CUs.

In addition, when the panel validates a student's individual programme at the beginning of the year, it ensures the consistency of the individual programme:

- It can change a prerequisite into a corequisite within a single year (to allow studies to be continued with an adequate annual load);
- It can require the student to combine enrolment in two separate CUs it considers necessary for educational purposes.

For more information, please consult regulation of studies and exams.

The programme's courses and learning outcomes

For each UCLouvain training programme, a reference framework of learning outcomes specifies the competences expected of every graduate on completion of the programme. You can see the contribution of each teaching unit to the programme's reference framework of learning outcomes in the document "In which teaching units are the competences and learning outcomes in the programme's reference framework developed and mastered by the student?"

The document is available by clicking this link after being authenticated with your UCLouvain account.

LAFR1BA - Information

Admission

Decree of 7 November 2013 defining the landscape of higher education and the academic organization of studies.

The admission requirements must be met prior to enrolment in the University.

In the event of the divergence between the different linguistic versions of the present conditions, the French version shall prevail.

SUMMARY

- General requirements
- Specific requirement
- Special requirements

General requirements

Except as otherwise provided by other specific legal provisions, admission to undergraduate courses leading to the award of a Bachelor's degree will be granted to students with one of the following qualifications :

1. A Certificate of Upper Secondary Education issued during or after the 1993-1994 academic year by an establishment offering full-time secondary education or an adult education centre in the French Community of Belgium and, as the case may be, approved if it was issued by an educational institution before 1 January 2008 or affixed with the seal of the French Community if it was issued after this date, or an equivalent certificate awarded by the Examination Board of the French Community during or after 1994;
2. A Certificate of Upper Secondary Education issued no later than the end of the 1992-1993 academic year, along with official documentation attesting to the student's ability to pursue higher education for students applying for a full-length undergraduate degree programme;
3. A diploma awarded by a higher education institution within the French Community that confers an academic degree issued under the above-mentioned Decree, or a diploma awarded by a university or institution dispensing full-time higher education in accordance with earlier legislation;
4. A higher education certificate or diploma awarded by an adult education centre;
5. A pass certificate for one of the entrance examinations organized by higher education institutions or by an examination board of the French Community; this document gives admission to studies in the sectors, fields or programmes indicated therein;
6. A diploma, certificate of studies or other qualification similar to those mentioned above, issued by the Flemish Community of Belgium, the German Community of Belgium or the Royal Military Academy;
7. A diploma, certificate of studies or other qualification obtained abroad and deemed equivalent to the first four mentioned above by virtue of a law, decree, European directive or international convention;

Note:

Requests for equivalence must be submitted to the Equivalence department (Service des équivalences) of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research of the French Community of Belgium in compliance of the official deadline.

The following two qualifications are automatically deemed equivalent to the Certificate of Upper Secondary Education (Certificat d'enseignement secondaire supérieur – CESS):

- European Baccalaureate issued by the Board of Governors of a European School,
- International Baccalaureate issued by the International Baccalaureate Office in Geneva.

8. Official documentation attesting to a student's ability to pursue higher education (diplôme d'aptitude à accéder à l'enseignement supérieur - DAES), issued by the Examination Board of the French Community.

Specific requirement

Admission to undergraduate studies on the basis of accreditation of knowledge and skills obtained through professional or personal experience (Accreditation of Prior Experience)

Subject to the general requirements laid down by the authorities of the higher education institution, with the aim of admission to the undergraduate programme, the examination boards accredit the knowledge and skills that students have obtained through their professional or personal experience.

This experience must correspond to at least five years of documented activity, with years spent in higher education being partially taken into account: 60 credits are deemed equivalent to one year of experience, with a maximum of two years being counted. At the end of an assessment procedure organized by the authorities of the higher education institution, the Examination Board will decide whether a student has sufficient skills and knowledge to successfully pursue undergraduate studies.

After this assessment, the Examination Board will determine the additional courses and possible exemptions constituting the supplementary requirements for the student's admission.

Special requirements

- Admission to undergraduate studies in engineering: civil engineering and architect

Pass certificate for the special entrance examination for undergraduate studies in engineering: civil engineering and architect.

Admission to these courses is always subject to students passing the special entrance examination. Contact the faculty office for the programme content and the examination arrangements.

Note: students wishing to enrol for a Bachelor's degree in Medicine or a Bachelor's degree in dental science must first sit an aptitude test \(fr\).

Teaching method

The bachelors programme in Bachelor in Ancient and Modern Languages and Letters begins with a common semester made up of general courses given within the faculty. These general courses are taught by a team of teachers who emphasize an active exchange involving practical work and student participation. This common semester provides students with the opportunity to change to another bachelors programme at the end of the January exam session if the student's advisory office agrees.

From the second semester of the first year on, the courses specific to the students' bachelors programme use a variety of pedagogical methods (active learning, a balanced combination of individual and group work) with the aim of acquiring knowledge and the ability to analyse.

Throughout the student's bachelor programme in Bachelor in Ancient and Modern Languages and Letters, students experience a variety of teaching methods : lectures, group work, individual work, seminars. Some courses also use e-learning (exercises and resources are made available to students, pedagogical management, sharing and evaluation by the class of work).

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams. More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

Depending on the nature of the course and the teaching methods, the evaluation will take different forms. Some courses will involve oral and/or written evaluations (held during one of the three exam sessions: January – June – August/September), whilst the evaluation of seminars will involve more substantial student participation as well as assessment of individual course work. Evaluation methods will be explained at the beginning of each course.

Those exams relating to courses on communication skills will evaluate the student's level, i.e. the practical use of the language in relevant situations.

To obtain a student's average, the grades awarded for each course unit are weighted by their respective credits.

Mobility and/or Internationalisation outlook

Students pursuing a Bachelor in Ancient and Modern Languages and Literatures may, as part of their studies, undertake:

- a study visit for one term (30 credits) in one of the many universities with which the Faculty of Philosophy, Arts and Letters has concluded partnership agreements, in Europe under the Erasmus+ programme, in Switzerland under the SEMP programme, or elsewhere in the world under the FAME/Mercator programme, or
- a study visit for one term (30 credits) in one of the partner universities in Flanders, under the Erasmus Belgica programme.

Ideally, the exchange should be planned during the first term of the third year.

The list of recommended destinations is available on the Faculty's website.

Furthermore, under the agreement between UCLouvain and KU Leuven, Latin Language and Literature courses may be taken from the KU Leuven programme.
