ISPOLE WIP seminar 2026-2027

Looking for a friendly environment to discuss your work and progress in your research?

The Work In Progress (WIP) seminar is for you then! Each monthly session is devoted to the discussion of a single paper circulated in advance. Rather than giving a formal presentation, the author briefly introduces the paper and the questions on which they would particularly welcome feedback, before a collective discussion based on participants' prior reading of the text. It is built on a simple principle of reciprocity: everyone is encouraged both to receive feedback on their own work and to contribute to the discussion of others' research.

Apply to get the feedback of your colleagues on your ongoing projects!

We welcome submissions of draft articles, book chapters, thesis chapters or project proposals on all topics researched in ISPOLE.

The Work In Progress seminar is for all ISPOLE researchers, whatever their status: PhD researchers, postdocs and academics alike. The seminar will take place in a hybrid format and will be preceded by a 'moment of convivialité', offering an additional opportunity for informal exchanges among colleagues.
