

CONFERENCE

Distinction and Identity in Late-Scholastic

Thought and Beyond

May 15-17, 2023

Programme

Monday, May 15

14:00–14:30: Welcome address by Jean-Michel Counet, President of the Institut supérieur de philosophie

Introduction by the conference organizers

Section I: The Beginnings of Formalism Moderation: Claus A. Andersen (MSCA/UCLouvain)

14:30–15:20: Can Laurens Löwe (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin) Henry of Ghent's Intentional Distinction and its Relation to Duns Scotus's Formal Distinction – the Case of the Soul and its Powers

15:30–16:20: Garrett R. Smith (University of Bonn) Formal Non-Identity and Distinction in Peter Thomae and Francis of Meyronnes

16:30–17:20: Vitaly Ivanov (Tbilisi) Modus Intrinsecus in Duns Scotus and Petrus Thomae

17:30–18:20: William Duba (University of Fribourg) Nicolas Bonetus's White-tie Formalism

18:30–20:00: Reception in Salle Ladrière (wine and cheese)

Tuesday, May 16

Section 2 : Renaissance Developments Moderation: Jacob Schmutz (UCLouvain)

09:00–9:50: Claus A. Andersen (MSCA/UCLouvain) Brulefer and Sirect – A Parisian Debate over the Number of Distinctions

10:00–10:50: Apaoan Machado (UCLouvain) Vienna Formalism – Johannes Meyger's Treatise on Distinctions

11:00–11:50: Rafael Ramis Barceló (University of the Balearic Islands) Scotolullism – Concept, Development, Authors

12:00–12:50: Gabriel Müller (University of Basel) David Gorlaeus (1591–1612) on Real, Fictional and Modal Distinctions

13:00–14:30: Lunch break (sandwiches)

Section 3: Early Modern Developments Moderation: Patrícia Calvário (UCLouvain)

14:30–15:20: Igor Agostini (University of Salento) The Controversy over the Mutual Inclusion of Divine Attributes

15:30–16:20: Daniel Heider (University of South Bohemia) Suárez and the Formal Distinction

16:30–17:20: Roberto Hofmeister Pich (PUCRS Porto Alegre) A Century of Scotistic Metaphysics in Colonial South America Jeronimo Valera, Alfonso Briceno, and Juan de Fuica on Being, Distinction, and Identity

20:00: Conference dinner at B'Comme, located at the hotel Martin's, Louvain-la-Neuve

Wednesday, May 17

Section 4: Continuation and Innovation in the 17th Century Moderation:
Roberto Hofmeister Pich (PUCRS, Porto Alegre)

09:00–9:50 Jacob Schmutz (UCLouvain) Praecisio obiectiva a Key to the Significance of the Baroque Scholastics

10:00–10:50 Lukás Novák (Charles University, Prague) Bartolomeo Mastri on Contraction and Precision of Being

11:00–11:50 Daniel Novotný (University of South Bohemia) Juan Caramuel y
Lobkowitz on Distinctions

12:00–12:50 Jean-Pascal Anfray (École Normale Supérieure PSL, Paris)
Leibniz on Distinctions and Monadic Simplicity

12:50–13:20 End of the conference: Information concerning the proceedings volume and other scholarly announcements