

SAVE THE DATE!

27TH – 28TH NOVEMBER 2024
BRUSSELS, BELGIUM

FROM SELF-KNOWLEDGE TO KNOWING OTHERS

NEW ADVANCES IN UNLOCKING THE PLASTICITY OF SOCIAL COGNITION IN GENERAL AND CLINICAL POPULATIONS

UCLouvain iPSY

Social Cognition Workshop

The two-day program aims to inform participants about the empirical tools and theoretical models available to capture the plasticity of social cognition across both healthy and clinical populations.

Edition Theme

- 1. Towards better Interventions: What are the initiatives, methods, results, and strategies for enhancing or modulating social cognitive processes?
- 2. Understanding and tracking changes: How to unlock the plasticity of social cognition?

Keynote Speakers

Isabel Dziobek, Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Germany
Heather Ferguson, University of Ken, the UK
Pavla Linhartová, Masaryk University, Czech Republic
Arthur Pabst, Université Catholique de Louvain, Belgium
Ekaterina Pronizius, University of Vienna, Austria
Leonhard Schilbach, LVR-Klinikum Düsseldorf, Germany
Dirk Scheele, Ruhr-University Bochum, Germany
Maude Schneider, Université de Genève, Suisse
Jan Van den Stock, Katholieke Universiteit, Leuven, Belgium

At Glance

Format

Keynote talks, blitz talks, discussion sessions, and a poster session with a best poster award

Costs and reception

Registration is free but mandatory. Coffee and lunch will be provided. Evening reception.

Audience

A mix of senior and junior researchers working on socio-cognitive abilities and clinicians. From psychology to neuroscience.

Traveling

Please choose sustainable travel options. The workshop will be streamed online.

Register HERE

Contact:

1. alix.bigot@uclouvain.be
2. ekaterina.pronizius@univie.ac.at
3. henryk.bukowski@uclouvain.be

Place: UCLouvain campus, Brussels